MAJOR MARCI WALTON

SOCCER CAREER

Major Marci Walton grew up playing soccer in Colorado Springs and graduated from Cheyenne Mountain High School in 2000 as the female athlete of the year. She lettered in soccer, basketball and softball and was a team captain in each sport. She graduated from the US Air Force Academy in 2004 where she played all four years of D1 soccer for the Falcons. In 2006 she was selected for the All-Air Force soccer team and helped her team win the Armed Forces tournament. Then she was selected and competed for the US Armed Forces team at the 2006 CISM tournament in the Netherlands. In 2012, while stationed in Germany, she played for the FV Olympia Ramstein and helped lead her team to a championship and promotion to the Verbundsliga.

MILITARY CAREER

Major Walton just completed Air Command and Staff College at Maxwell Air Force Base and will be assigned to teach in the Air Power department next year. Over the course of her career she has served in three operational flying units and maintained worldwide mobility status. She has been an instructor pilot in two different major weapon systems: the C-130 and the KC-135. She is married to Daniel Walton and has two loving children, Brecken (5), and Kai (1).
