4. SELECTION CRITERIA:

a. There will be no automatic selections to the CISM Team; all selections will be discretionary. All eligible athletes will be given the same selection consideration with no preference given to members of specific clubs, teams, or geographic regions.

b. Discretionary team selection will be made by the Team Manager, in consultation with a selection panel. The primary purpose is to select the best physically, psychologically and technically prepared athlete(s) in order to produce medal-winning performances. Based on the context of the situation, the selection panel will evaluate which athletes should be selected to the team in order to field the strongest, soundest and most unified team for this event. Many of these participants may have Olympic experience often with the same teammate they will sail with at the Military World Games. In order for the United States team to be competitive the following criteria have been set as the standards for application.

c. To be considered for the U.S. Armed Forces Sailing Team, all applicants should possess one or more of the following criteria:

1) Collegiate or National experience in dinghy's or the designated boat determined by the host nation.

2) Be part of a current or past United States Olympic Sailing program

d. In the event that there are not enough applications received that meet the above criteria the Armed Forces Sports Office reserves the right to not send a sailing team to the Championship.

e. The selection procedures may be subject to change based on the host country or CISM Sailing Sports Committee.

5. SELECTED ATHLETES

a. Selected athletes are expected to compete in a regular schedule of training and competitions, as approved by the Team Manager, between the team selection and the CISM Championship. The reason for schedule approval is to ensure the athlete's focus is on CISM Team preparation.

b. The Team Manager will nominate/select and manage all athletes and staff who participate in these events.

c. All aspects of the team travel, and all on-site logistics and housing for this event will be centrally managed. All athletes and staff who are part of the official U.S. Armed Forces Sailing Team delegation for this event must function as a team.

d. U.S. Armed Forces Sports and U.S. Armed Forces Sailing committee will NOT be responsible for or manage logistics for personal team managers, personal coaches/staff, athletes' families, spouses, friends or significant others. It will be the responsibility of these individuals to make separate arrangements for housing, food and transportation and they will be responsible for all costs related to any separate arrangements they might make. Additionally, these individuals will NOT be credentialed as part of the CISM Team for this event and will therefore not be allowed in the USA Team cabin(s) or pit areas unless specifically granted that privilege by the Team Manager.

e. If possible, the CISM Delegation will be gathered together for staging and/or training camp prior to departure. This normally will be approximately 7-10 days with a training camp or 3-5 days without a camp prior to the start of the CISM Championship.

f. Athletes are expected to arrive with all identified requirements, as directed by the designated Team Manager.

g. The event draw shall be determined by the CISM Sailing Sport Committee.
